LIGHT VOTE IN BUCKS

Jonas F. Kern Leads Democrats for County Commissioner

Doylestown, Pa., Sept. 17.—Income returns from the voting districts of Bucks county at a late hour last night indicate a very light vote. The only contest is for the Democratic nomination for county commissioner.

There were six candidates for Democratic nomination for county commissioner. The Democratic aspirants for commissioner are Joseph Golden, of Redbank; Oscar P. Helm, of Doylestown; James F. Kern, of Doylestown; Cornelius W. Leidy, of Hilltown; William S. Lewis, of Quakertown; and Aaron B. Weisel, of Milford. Returns from Doylestown and vicinity show a big majority for Kern. The following listed Republican candidates were successful at the primaries from returns received late last night: Sheriff, Harvey D. Hunsberger, Plumstead; recorder of deeds, Edward W. Minister, Bristol; county treasurer, A. Harry Clayton; clerk of Orphan's Court, B. Harrison Thatcher, Richland; clerk of Quarter Sessions, Howard C. Hetrick, Telford; county commissioners, James B. Cooper, Upper Merioneth, and Allen Zeitz, Hilltown; coroner, Howard P. White, Doylestown; auditor, Joseph M. Taylor, Doylestown; notary, and Aaron Tomlinson, Langhorne; county auditor, Isaac Krathen, Tinticum; and Charles E. Pugh, Newtown.

HARTMAN STAKE RACE

Direct C and Gladys B Seek $3000 Purse at Columbus

Columbus, O., Sept. 17. The feature of the third day's racing in the Grand Circuit program is the Hotel Hartman stake, purse $3000, for 211 pacers. In a Direct C, Burgett, Gladie Todd and Gladys B., all star performers of the season, are expected to meet for the first time this year. Frank Jones will drive Gladie Todd because of the injuries of E. E. Geers, which still keep him from the sulks. The other races are the 215 and the 208 pacers and the three-year-old pacing division of the Horse Review Futurity.

William H. Ehret

William H. Ehret, ninety years old, died yesterday afternoon in the Masonic Home, Broad and Ontario streets, after a long illness. He was born in Philadelphia January 9, 1830, and for many years conducted a cigar store at Twenty-seventh street and Girard avenue. For many years Mr. Ehret was a member of Kensington Lodge, 211, and A. M., and entered the Masonic Home November 30, 1918. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon.

Falls Dead While Taking Walk Doylestown, Pa., Sept. 17.—While taking his daily walk, Seneca Houck, aged eighty years, a prominent retired farmer and one of this borough's oldest residents, fell dead near his home here this morning. A stroke of paralysis proved fatal. For many years Mr. Houck resided in Coimser, Montgomery county.
